THE INN

DEER PARK INN is the first resort in the Tahoe Region after leaving Truckee. Its station is on the Lake Tahoe Railroad, four miles from the beautiful "Big Water"; and the three daily trains each way make it most desirable for those whose time is limited. The stage ride is two miles over a picturesque road in easy conveyances. Leaving San Francisco in the evening, one can get settled at the Inn and be off fishing before the next noon. On the return, one can leave in the evening also, after having secured the full value of the last day of vacation. A long-distance telephone gives connection with the outer world.

TAMARACK COTTAGE

Deer Park Inn is built in the Bear Creek Canyon, with the usual Sierran environment of majestic peaks, stalwart trees and captivating lakes and streams; but what is unusual is the group of Mineral Springs, said by specialists to resemble the famous Bartlett waters. Near these Springs has grown up the settlement of the hotel with its attractive log cottages and comfortable tents. The Inn combines those qualities which appeal to both the rest-seeker and the sportsman. The table is generous and the service good. A dairy on the place provides an abundance of milk, cream, fresh butter and buttermilk.

ON ONE OF THE FIVE LAKES

Tennis and croquet induce gentle exercise, and in every direction trails lead each man to his heart's desire. The fisherman may cast in Bear Creek at the very door or may wander to the Truckee River, to Lake Tahoe, to Squaw Creek, to the Five Lakes, or to that unsurpassed haunt of the finny tribe, Hell Hole. The mountain climber is fully rewarded by the panoramas from the summits of Squaw Peak, Ward's Peak, Twin Peaks, or Tinker's Knob. On every path the flowers crowd, an inimitable medley of color and fragrance. THERE ARE NO RATTLESNAKES NOR POISON-OAK IN THE REGION.

Saddle horses and carriages can always be secured at moderate prices. At this altitude, sleeping out is a delight. Guests who wish to camp out may arrange to do so without extra expense except for animals and guides.

For the season of 1908 Deer Park Inn has been leased by Miss Katherine Chandler, formerly of Glen Alpine Springs. The Inn will be ready for guests June 1st. If the weather permit, it will be kept open throughout October. This is usually the most delightful month in the Sierras. The days are warm, the foliage dons the autumnal tints of the East, and cliffs and skies take on soft, radiant hues.
